To Enforce Curfew Ordinance Strictly

PARENTS WARNED

No Boy or Girl Under Sixteen to be Allowed on Streets at Night

The city marshal announces that, beginning tonight, Ordinance 71, otherwise known as the "Curfew Ordinance," will be strictly enforced in this city.

This ordinance provides that no minor less than sixteen years of age shall be allowed on any public street, sidewalk, or place between 9:00 p. m. and 5:00 a. m. unless accompanied by an adult.

The marshal states that this ordinance has not been emphasized particularly for some time as there seemed no especial necessity for such action. His office has dealt with individual cases as they arose without making any public fuss.

Recently, however, there have been so many cases of children under sixteen, especially boys, being allowed to stay away from home and hang around down town late at night, that it has been decided to enforce the ordinance strictly.

The marshal issues a warning to parents that they are taking grave risks with the future of their children when they are so lax in their control. He says that if the average father or mother could see the results of this laxness as officers of the law see it every day, they would tighten up on the reins of discipline and make a point of knowing where their children were after dark and what they were doing.

He also added that the enforcement would apply to everybody's child—no exceptions made.

LEAVES FOR FAMILY REUNION

Tom Henderson leaves tonight over the Salt Lake for his old home in Sherbrooke, Province of Montreal, Canada, and expects to be gone at least a month. He says there is to be a great family reunion in the old home—everybody there for the first time in fourteen years and he is bound not to miss it.

He expects to make a couple of stops on the way, arriving at his home in time for Christmas Day. He will then go on to New York and from there by boat to New Orleans and back over the Sunset route.

Tom has worked hard during the installation of the new water system and needs a vacation badly. He has been one of the most energetic and enthusiastic boosters for the Firemen's Club and has done his full share on all the entertainments that have been given for that cause.

His only regret at leaving at this time is that he will not be here for the Community Festival Christmas Eve, but while quick in action, he couldn't exactly arrange to be here Christmas Eve and home in Canada the next day, so he had to pass up the celebration here.

Ticket Sale

Football Game

Announcement is made by the Tournament of Roses Association that the sale of seats for the annual "East and West" football classic at Pasadena, will open on the morning of Tuesday, December 20. There will be two box offices—one in Pasadena and one in Los Angeles.

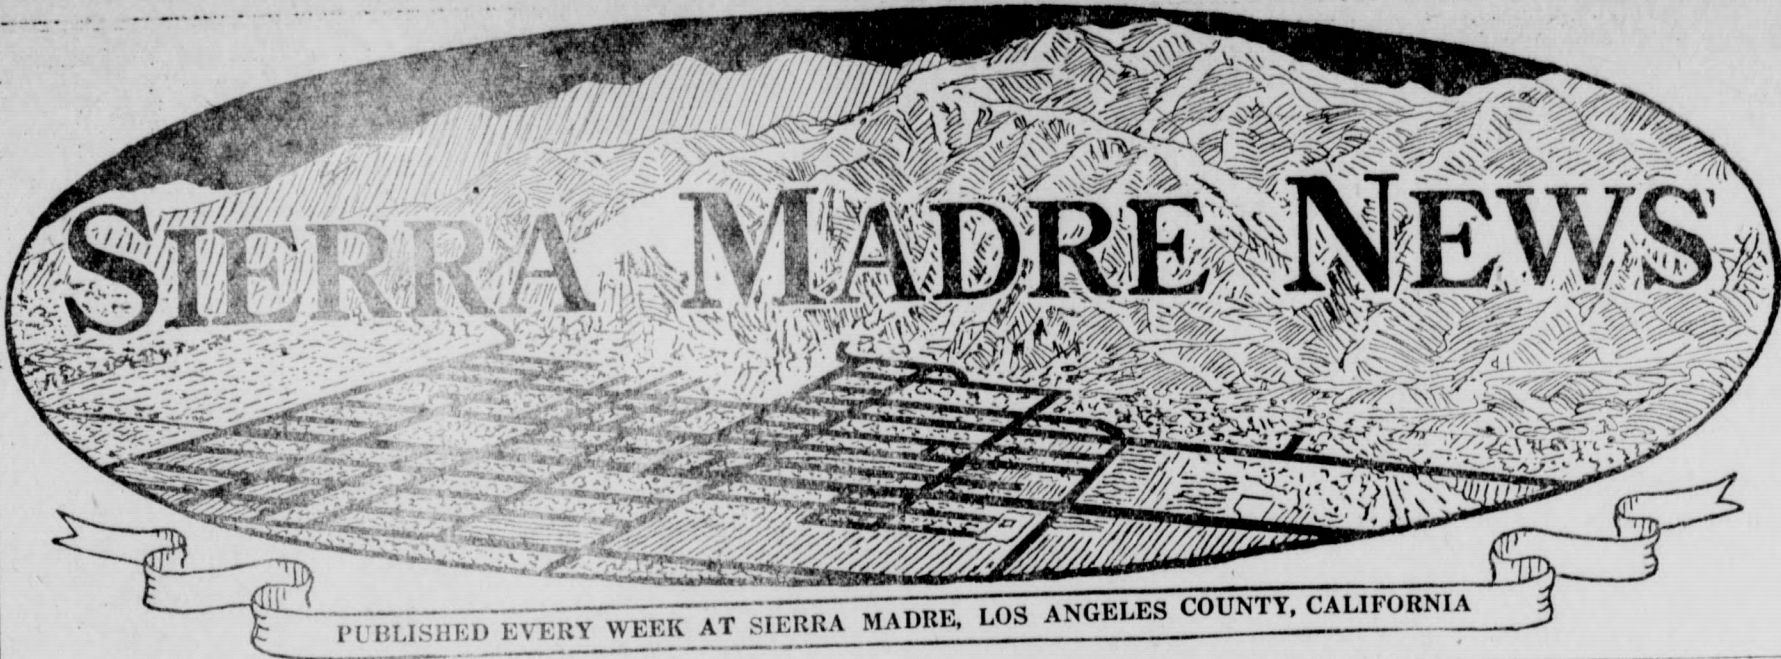

The football teams to play this year are those of Washington and Jefferson, one of the three or four undefeated football teams of the Atlantic seaboard, and the University of California team. Neither team has lost a game during the season, and sports writers are a unit in stating that they expect the easterners will give the California "wonder team" a hard tussle.

There are but two prices on tickets this year—$2.50 and $5.00 plus the war tax. The Tournament of Roses officials state that mail orders accompanied by check, money order or cash will be accepted and filled in the order of receipt and until all remaining seats are sold.

There will be no further sale of seats for the new stadium until after January 1. Those holding stadium receipts will have first choice of seats for the New Years' Game this time and after that the general public will be privileged to purchase the remaining seats.

No individual is to be permitted to purchase more than ten tickets for the game with the exception of bona fide secretaries of Chambers of Commerce who may take orders and purchase tickets for the several communities they represent if they so desire.

The box office in Pasadena will be in the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce rooms in the east building of the Hotel Green. Mail orders for seats should, however, be sent directly to the Tournament of Roses Association.

Will Stage Air Stunts

Wonderful Program at Sierra Aircraft Field Tomorrow Let's Go

Owing to the fact that several Sierra Madre people have interests in the Sierra Aircraft Field, the following from the Los Angeles Examiner written by Capt. Robert Rogers, will be of special interest.

Never to be outdone in anything by Long Beach which recently staged the first of a series of aviation meets to be held hereabouts during the coming winter, Pasadena is about to burst forth with an aerial melee that the Crown citizens promise will make the late beach events look like a series of student's first solo flights.

Time, Saturday, December 17, from 1 to 4:30 p. m.

Place, Sierra Field, Lamanda Park. Fifteen events are on the program which is being sponsored by the Commercial Aircraft Association and the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce.

Every common or garden variety of aerial antic will be performed, as well as several that have heretofore been unattempted, according to Leon T. Elie, president of the Sierra Aircraft Company, who is in active charge of the arrangements.

Thirty Planes Assured As regards contestants, the affair will be entirely invitational. The participants of at least thirty local fliers and planes is already assured, with a possibility of additional acceptances as well as an entry from the army fliers.

Lighter-than-air craft will be represented by a pony blimp and sausage observation balloon from Ross Field, Arcadia. The blimp was badly damaged when it was dragged from its moorings, but repairs are being rushed to have it in readiness for next Saturday's events.

While the sponsors of the meet want everyone to come and have a good time, they are devising ways and means to stimulate punning and to eliminate a few of the hundreds of customers who have made a practice at previous flying meets of staying outside and seeing the show for nothing. Inasmuch as the receipts of the program are to be devoted to the stimulation of flying interest in Southern California, the scheme seems perfectly equitable.

For Cash Patrons Only The starts and finishes of eight of the events will take place on the ground where only cash patrons will have much of a look-see. The remainder of the contests will take place right up in the free blue sky where those parked about the countryside can see 'em gratis.

The most important speed contest will be a race between planes capable of making at least 120 miles an hour. Daugherty, Creeth, Frank Tomick and Frank Clark will pilot four of the racers while the fifth, a Niagara scout from the Rogers Airport, will probably be flown by Kenneth Montee.

For those who require thrills with their aviation meets, Wesley May and Fearless Freddie will, at one and the same time, perform a few flip-flops or—perhaps off—the top wing of the same plane. Both young men are entirely fearless and their exhibition should brainless—and their exhibition should supply a kick for the most jaded sensation seeker.

A Miss Kalischake of Venice will lift the veil from the future by showing how milady, in the year 1925, will step lightly from her taxicab plane onto the aerial express and, arriving at her destination, step blithely off in a parachute while the express plane without even slowing down, sails sedately on to the next station. Frank Clark will give an exhibition of balloon straffing, destroying a number of small balloons in the air.

Closing Obstacle Race The remaining events include a relay race, three parachute jumps from various altitudes, a ladies' race in which at least three feminine pilots are expected to participate, a tug-of-war between a plane and a five-ton truck, accurate landing contests and several other exhibitions.

The program will be concluded with an obstacle race in which contestants will be required to take off, loop, land, turn on the ground, take off again, turn in the air and land. The winner will be the pilot who takes the least time from the first take off to final landing.

All participating machines will be on exhibition on the ground before and between the events. The most interesting ground exhibit is expected to be the new Catron & Fish seven passenger triplane, which has just been completed and is soon to be put through preliminary flights.

Sierra Field is located on the Foot-hill boulevard west of Sierra Madre and may be reached by auto or by carline. By P. E. Cars, get off at Villa Station and walk half mile south.

Christmas Seal Your Xmas Mail 500 Stockings For Tree

The sale of Christmas seals is not moving as rapidly as it should and those in charge urge every one who has not yet bought a supply to stop in at the office of the Edison Electric company in the Kersting block and purchase them from Mrs. Chalmers.

So much good is accomplished by the Antituberculosis Association, which gets the money from this seal sale, that no one who stops to think about it would hesitate to buy the seals.

One placed on every piece of Christmas mail is a proof that the sender is willing to contribute his mite to help along this wonderful work of prevention, especially among the children.

Following is a statement sent out by the association of what was accomplished with the money raised through the seal sale last year. It doesn't seem possible that the pennies and nickels and dimes and quarters could have rolled up to a sum sufficient for all this, but the facts cannot be disputed.

This year's sale should make even more possible, and Sierra Madre should have her share in this great accomplishment, which holds an especial appeal for the people of this section of the country.

The purchase of Christmas Seals last year made possible help for patients needing sanatorium care. Nutrition classes for under-weight children.

A Traveling Motor Clinic that found 1,500 people suffering from tuberculosis. They are being helped.

Scales for city and rural schools. Summer camps for children attending Clinics.

Preventoria for children too ill for summer camps.

Nurses and Clinics to help patients not in hospitals.

A modern health crusade director preaching 100 per cent Perfect Health to School Children.

A supervising rural nurse.

Occupational Therapy Teachers in the sanatoria helping patients learn a new occupation while taking the cure.

A research worker to investigate the claims made for Chaulmoogra oil as a cure for tuberculosis.

Surveys to determine the causes of tuberculosis in the community.

Open air schools.

A million pieces of educational literature for distribution.

Every Kiddie in Town Invited to Attend Community Christmas Festival

The preparations for the Community Christmas Tree at the Woman's Club House on Christmas Eve are shaping up and the details have been worked out so there will be no hitch in the proceedings when the great day comes.

J. N. Hawks, chairman of the basket committee, called his workers together Monday night and feels he has a very complete list of those to whom baskets and sunshine boxes should be sent.

Speaking for his committee, he asks that those citizens who have been in the habit of contributing to these baskets in former years give their usual contribution this year, whether of materials or money. These contributions should be left at the city hall in the care of either City Clerk Dietz or Marshal Udell and specified as being for the basket collection.

Those who have contributions which cannot be delivered are requested to notify either Mr. Dietz at Red 34 or Mr. Hawks at Exchange 2, and the contributions will be sent for.

One thing which is very much desired for the Sunshine Boxes is candy. The committee will be very grateful for half and pound boxes of candy—preferably home made, tied in Christmas looking packages. It has been suggested that some of the girls clubs might be willing to make some candy for the object and wrap it daintily with appropriate paper and ribbons.

Boxes of home made candy were sent to many sick people last year and in every instance were most heartily appreciated. It was the fact that the invalid was remembered with something that showed personal effort and thought that seemed to give the greatest happiness. The Sunshine Boxes are made up almost entirely of home made "cents" and they invariably prove worthy of their name.

There was a combined meeting of the Firemen's Club members and the Directors Wednesday night at which some further details were settled. The tree committee reported that they had the tree and would have it set up at the proper time.

It is hoped that practically every child in the city will attend this festival. Five hundred Christmas stockings have been ordered which will be filled with goodies and ready for distribution to the small folks. The words and music of a special Christmas Carol which is endorsed by the American Legion are to be turned over to Professor Reynolds with the request that the school children be given an opportunity to rehearse it before the night of the festival, as the singing is to be a big feature of the entertainment.

Four new members were voted into the club and a vote of thanks given the Philanthropy Committee of the Woman's Club for the donation of thirty-five dollars towards the festival.

A special meeting will be held next Wednesday night to arrange last minute details.

AUTOMOBILES CRASH ON SOUTH BALDWIN AVENUE

What might have proved a very serious accident occurred on South Baldwin avenue at the corner of Live Oak about six o'clock Wednesday evening, when the car of J. H. Morgan, going south, collided with the car of Mr. McClure, who had stopped on the wrong side of the street.

Fortunately no one was hurt, but Mr. Morgan's car was considerably damaged as it ran into the deep culvert at that crossing.

Mr. McClure, who was traveling north on Baldwin, stopped at the corner to allow a passenger to alight and he was decidedly on the west side of the street. Mr. Morgan, coming down the hill, did not realize the other car had stopped, but on account of the movement of the lights due to the throttling engine, supposed it to be moving and therefore tried to keep to the right of it, according to traffic regulations. There was not sufficient room between the standing car and the ditch and he plunged into the latter. Both men are citizens of Monrovia.

FIRE DESTROYS ARCADIA BOTTLING WORKS

Fire of unknown origin last night completely destroyed the Arcadia Bottling Works. The exact loss is not known but it is figured close to $25,000.

The volunteer fire department and boys from Ross Field responded to the fire call and later the Pasadena Fire department were called but arrived too late to save the building. This is the second big fire Arcadia has had within the last few months.

TEAM WINS HONORS AT CHICAGO

Word is just received from Chicago to the effect that the Los Angeles County livestock judging team composed of high school students from Los Angeles County, has won signal honors in the livestock judging contests at the great Chicago International Livestock Show.

In the high school competition, fourth and sixth places respectively were taken by the Los Angeles county team and in the Federal Free for All judging contest, Wilder McCullough of Van Nuys won first place in competition with boys from all over the United States and Herman Darling of the Franklin High School won third place.

In view of the comparatively short time in which the boys were under training, this is regarded as an extremely creditable showing and reflects great credit on the teachers of agriculture and the County Club Leader who trained the boys.

SPENDING WINTER IN CALIFORNIA

Miss Pearl Cutler of Fond Du Lac, Wisconsin spent last week end with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Sullivan of the Sierra Madre Bakery and luncheon.

Miss Cutler expects to spend the winter here and in Los Angeles.

Reorganization Activities Shaping Up Well

DEMOCRATIC PLAN

Increased Interest in Committee Work One of the Objects to be Gained By New Method

Sierra Madre's Chamber of Commerce will soon be standardized and ready to undertake the program of outstanding needs of the community.

On Monday, Clarence W. Schouboe, brother of Campaign Director Ben H. Schouboe, arrived in Sierra Madre to direct the organization of the entire membership into a modern, highly efficient Chamber of Commerce.

Schouboe specializes in directing the details of organization work, suggesting methods and policies found in general usage in the Chamber of Commerce field, to bring about the greatest membership interest and participation.

Only recently he completed organization work in Culver City, Compton, Sawtelle, Covina and Hollywood, where their chambers are now functioning successfully for their communities.

Early next week the entire membership will be invited to a special meeting to discuss and adopt standard by-laws adapted to the local needs. Immediately following the adoption of by-laws, a new board of directors will be nominated and elected by the entire membership. First, a primary ballot, containing the names of all the members, will be sent to each member with request to nominate their choice from this list to serve as directors.

Those receiving the highest votes to be elected will be declared nominated. The names of the nominees will then be placed on the final ballot and sent to each member with request to again vote for their choice. Those receiving the highest vote in the final election will then be declared elected.

The board of directors will elect a president, vice-president and treasurer, and immediately proceed to carry out the program of work needed in the community and suggested by the members.

In discussing chambers of commerce in general, Mr. Schouboe said: "The main purpose of a chamber of commerce should be to induce individuals to accept and effectively discharge, their duties and responsibilities as citizens.

"In designing a chamber of commerce for community development, the primary purpose should be to create and maintain an organization of citizens endowed with certain vital, compatible ideals, and so trained in working together that no matter what situation may arise, they will function as a unit, promptly, effectively and in a manner conducive of the greatest common welfare.

"In community associations, the source of all power and authority should be in the membership. They have united that they may give concerted thought to their common problems and act in concert with the need for action is indicated. It is important that the association should retain the individual interest of its members, that it should stimulate them to think, and induce them to act on committees, or in such other capacity as may be most expedient from time to time.

"The membership should elect a board of directors, transfer to them judicial, executive and to some extent legislative, authority, and then hold them responsible for conducting the affairs of the organization in such a manner as to achieve their joint objects.

"It should be the province of the membership to determine policies of the organization with respect to fundamental issues. These may be adopted or amended from time to time. Policies may be prepared by the board of directors or by initiative petition. They should be submitted for adoption in the form of a referendum.

"The membership should retain full control of the election machinery. There should be no nominating committees, and no perpetuation of any governing group.

"The association should maintain the principle that FUNCTION PRECEDES STRUCTURE in all normal, organized growth. Every successful organization is a product of evolution. It arrives at an advanced stage of successful operation only through the application of intelligent and continuous effort.

There are many citizens who are not yet members of the new chamber of commerce, probably because they have not been seen out of the city. To all those, special appeal is made to list their names with Mrs. Wright before Monday night so all members may have their names on the primary ballot.

WOMAN'S CLUB NEWS

By Press Chairman, Mrs. Besse Palmer Rhodes.

Reciprocity Day

Abundantly offering quantities of the same sincere hospitality, which has helped to establish the enviable reputation the Sierra Madre Woman's Club bears among the many clubs of the district, the delighted guests and members of the club met in the club rooms on Monday where Reciprocity Day with all the meaning which the term implies was celebrated. The day was perfect and out of town guests gathered early enjoying a social convalesce in the parlors. The club rooms were brilliantly beautiful, the Christmas idea having been carried out in the decorations. Red bells in a variety of sizes clustered mid sprays of greenery, poinsettias, red geraniums and pampas grass in lovely profusion and from above, lights dimmed with streamers of red made the scene a truly gay one. Mrs. Roland Adams and Mr. Frank Monroe Smith, with a lively corps of assistants were responsible for the decorating effects.

Under the capable management of Mrs. Homer Glidden, who as hospitality chairman, is fast gaining an enviable reputation, and culinary perfection could not be surpassed, was served.

The president, Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, then gave a short talk and with characteristic sincerity and sweetness of manner, greeted the many out of town guests and members, voicing the sentiment that the day, to her, was really the happiest of all those of the club season. She again, thanking the members for the faith reposed in her and expressing the humble hope, that she might prove worthy of their trust.

Mrs. Frank Wright was then introduced as toast-mistress and with the various luncheon speakers. Mrs. Sidney Thomas Exley, State Vice-President at large, spoke as always with a calm assurance of one whose thoughts are filled with the highest and noblest ideals of true womanhood—a truly worth while message.

Mrs. Urquhart having been unable to attend, Mrs. Richey, the District Secretary acted as her substitute. She strongly reiterated Mrs. Exley's remarks for the Sterling-Towner Bill and urged broader educational ideals.

In response to invitation, representatives from the various clubs in the district made crisp, interesting remarks.

Under the enthusiastic leadership of Mrs. H. I. Hawxhurst, with Mrs. Griebnow at the piano, the singing of "Jingle Bells" and "The Old Folks at Home," was entered into with zest.

A rare musical program followed in which Anthony Carlson, Los Angeles' greatest bass singer, accompanied by Oscar Rasbach, pianist and composer, was heard. Both were splendid, the sweet tones of the singer, varying from the soft and mellow to the deep and rich, disclosed a wonderful range and perfect control, enhanced always by the sympathetic understanding of the accompanist, who also gave two piano numbers, one of which was his own composition. Both artists graciously responded to encore.

A brief social time followed the program, while good byes were said to departing guests, and so Reciprocity Day for the year 1921 goes into club history as one of the most worth while days of the club life.

Wishing to lend its influence to the movement which is reclaiming the spoken drama, and is endeavoring to establish a drama which will convey a cleaner, more spiritual message, and thus open up a new era in the theatrical world, the Drama Section of the Woman's Club of which Mrs. Frank Wright is chairman, is this week staging two evenings of entertainment in which scenes from three different Shakespearian plays will be presented. The parts will all be taken by local people, some of whom are making their initial appearance behind the footlights.

The scenes are cast as follows:
Twelfth Night, act 1, scene 5, Olivia—Mrs. Roland Adams; Viola, Miss

Elenore Bayne; Maria, Mrs. Minnie Kimball. Ladies in Waiting.

Merchant of Venice, Act 3, scene 2, Bassanio, Raymond Hedderly; Portia, Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger. Ladies in waiting.

Romeo and Juliet, act 3, scene 5, Romeo, Raymond Hedderly; Juliet, Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger; Nurse, Mrs. Allen T. Gay.

Lighting effects will be under the supervision of Ralph Odwarker.

A side-splitting comedy is being offered by the "Q" Club of Pasadena, entitled "Mrs. Pat and the Law," and is cast as follows: Mrs. Pat, Mrs. A. H. Palmer; Jimmy, Ruth Clark; Pat, Edward Murphy; District Nurse, Miss Florence MacAfee. Miss MacAfee will be remembered as having been the efficient director of the Drama Section last year.

The "Q" club comedy will be given on Friday night, November, 16, together with the Shakespearian scenes and on Saturday night the Shakespearian scenes will be followed by dancing, the Kidas Orchestra supplying the music.

The proceeds of this entertainment will be expended in lightening the debt on the Club House. Tickets may be secured at the Hartman Drug Store.

Grand New Year Ball

Following out a pretty custom of many years standing, the Woman's Club will give a grand New Year's Ball on the evening of December 31. On this evening, contrary to the usual custom of the club, dancing will continue until 1 o'clock, and the New Year will be ushered in with a beautifully appropriate presentation, for which plans are now being rounded out. Other attractions, symbolical of the day, will add to the festivities of this annual celebration, for which, those wishing to spend New Year's Eve in an entirely pleasant congenial atmosphere, will reserve the date.

COMMEND CURFEW LAW ENFORCEMENT

The City authorities are taking a step which will meet with universal approval in deciding to enforce strictly the so-called "curfew" ordinance. This ordinance prohibits any children under sixteen years of age being on the streets or in any public place after nine in the evening unless accompanied by a grown person.

We are comfortable in the knowledge that by far the greater number of youngsters in this city are well behaved and orderly and their parents have sense enough not to let them run around alone at night, but there is always the small minority who need looking after, and lately it has seemed advisable to call attention to the fact that such an ordinance is in existence and is to be galvanized into effective action.

At the risk of being stigmatized as old-fashioned and fussy, we do not hesitate to remark gently but firmly that it is daily being borne in upon the editorial consciousness that a large number of the children of today are given more liberty than is good for them and that they show a decidedly appalling lack of respect for authority of any description.

In fact we have had an uneasy feeling for a number of years that in acquiescing in the dictum that the child must be allowed to develop his or her individuality and not be hampered by rules and regulation, America, as a nation, has gone a few steps too far in the other direction.

No one who loves or has studied children, would advise a return to the strictness and severity and child repression of a few generations ago, but there should be a happy medium between that and the precocious young nuisance of today who defies parental authority early and often.

We cannot help but speculate on what is wrong with the home and the training of the children when attention is called to the fact that our penal institutions are crowded with young men and that the court calendars are clogged with criminal charges against young fellows in their teens or scarcely of age. It cannot all be laid to the war and its resulting restlessness for this same condition was giving anxiety before the war was thought of, and many of these arrested are too young to have had any part in the war. Its beginning lies deeper than that—it lies in the gradually weakening of control in the home and the consequent gradually increasing contempt for all authority, parental, school or governmental, on the part of the growing boys and girls.

It is a situation which can best be met and dealt with only in the individual home. Laws and penalties won't help much. What is really needed is a school for parents, so few of us are really fitted for the job. It is not a particularly easy one if we hope to obtain good results and yet any father or mother is expected to know by instinct just what to do in any and every contingency. Most of us can look back and see how much better it could have been done and wonder how we could have been so blind at the time.

We can't love our children too much but we can love them the wrong way. The parent who allows love to display itself by overindulgence and lack of proper discipline is, in the long run, a mighty cruel parent. The whole universe is based on law and civilization would speedily disintegrate without observance of law. The spoiled child is bound to get some pretty hard knocks when he has to face the realities of life and is beyond the shelter of his home. It would have been a far better love to have taught him self-control and respect for authority.

There does not seem much ground for argument as to the advisability of boys and girls younger than sixteen being in their own homes after nine at night except on rare occasions. They really ought to be in bed about that time if they are to develop physically as they should—the growing child needs an immense amount of sleep. The curfew law will serve as a reminder to those parents who may have grown a little careless.

YOUR CHRISTMAS GIFT SHOULD NOT BE A BURDEN

"Do your Christmas Shopping early has been drilled in our ears for many seasons but it might be well to add, "and mail your gifts and cards early."

So many people wait until the eleventh hour and the forty-ninth minute before they mail Christmas remembrances—Cards particularly. It must fill the mail carrier's heart with a particularly rarefied brand of peace and goodwill to spend half of Christmas delivering fool things that people were too lazy or too forgetful to mail in time—especially when he has a few hundred of those dinky little cards in his bag.

We, ourselves, have been guilty of this piece of thoughtlessness and it never dawned upon our massive intelligence how much we were adding to the joy of the world till our attention was called to an article in one of the daily papers telling of the happiness of handling the last minute cards in miniature sizes, in the post offices throughout the country. Never again.

Social Activities of the Week

Mrs. Fred Griebenow of Santa Anita Ct. had as house guest for several days this week Mrs. Rawson of Los Angeles.

Miss Alice Stanley is expected home this week from her eastern trip. She has been visiting friends and relatives for about two months.

Mrs. C. L. Drake of E. Grand View returned last week from a visit of some weeks duration with friends and relatives in Alliance, Nebraska. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Maud Kilgour, who will spend the winter here.

Robert James Wark of Victoria, Canada, is expected to arrive in Sierra Madre next Monday to spend the Christmas holidays with his wife and family at their home on N. Adams Street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson entertained a number of friends last Saturday evening with cards. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Klunk, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Conard, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Manchester, Miss Bearatrice George and Will Miller.

Mrs. E. C. Newton, Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, Mrs. W. E. Walker and Mrs. W. R. Lees attended the Examiner Benefit performance at Philharmonic Auditorium Wednesday night which was given for the purpose of raising funds for Christmas baskets for the needy in Los Angeles.

Mrs. C. H. Perry of E. Laurel Ave. entertained with a dinner last Friday evening to some of the members of the Order of St. Catherine. The guests were Mrs. Mary Goodfellow, Miss T. H. Graham, Mrs. Roland Adams, Mrs. Louis Brooks, Mrs. Stella Dennison and the Misses Hazel and Jean Woodward, Bae Farman, Esther Olsen and Harriet Sperry.

Mrs. William Morgan, Secretary of the Woman's Club, was soloist at the yuletide luncheon of the Cosmos Club of Los Angeles on Tuesday at the Ebell Club House. One of her songs which was most enthusiastically received was Joyce Kilmer's poem, "Trees" which has been set to music by Mr. Oscar Rasbach of this city. Mrs. Morgan is a pupil of Mr. Anthony Carlson of Los Angeles who so delighted the audience at the Woman's Club Reciprocity Day program.

Mrs. Hooker Jones entertained with a surprise birthday party in honor of her nephew, Frank Spencer, at her beautiful home on West Live Oak Avenue last Friday night. The living rooms were decorated with pink roses and greenery and in the dining room an effective yellow floral scheme added to the attractiveness of an unusually beautiful room. About thirty of the younger social set were present and enjoyed dancing and billiards. A buffet supper was served about midnight. Those who assisted the hostess in receiving were Mrs. Warren Williams of Los Angeles and Mesdames H. E. Long, E. C. Newton, Joseph Hooker, J. Milton Steinberger and Spencer Howard.

PREPARING CHRISTMAS MUSIC

The choir of the Church of the Ascension is preparing especially beautiful music for the Christmas Day service at eleven, at which time there will be the full choral celebration of the Holy Communion.

This coming Sunday the woman's trio of the choir will sing, "In the Field with their Flocks Abiding" by Custance, at the morning service.

THIEVES STRIP COLWELL'S CAR OF ALL MOVABLES

Max Colwell of W. Central avenue left his Ford sedan standing in front of the Strand theater in Pasadena last Sunday night and when he looked for it after the performance it had disappeared.

Monday the Los Angeles police found the car abandoned on 66th street with everything movable stripped from it. The body and engine were about all that was left. Even the wheels had been taken.

The thieves left Mr. Colwell's overcoat in the car but stole an automatic revolver which he had left in the pocket. So far there is no clue to the thieves.

NEW DISPLAY WINDOWS MAKE GREAT IMPROVEMENT

F. H. Hartman and Son have decidedly improved the front of their drug store on Baldwin avenue by the new show windows which have been built the last week.

The latest ideas in lighting and arrangement have been utilized and those windows will vie with any of similar size in any of the big city stores. Window display has become an art and studying the Christmas windows in some of this city's stores will convince any unprejudiced observer that there are some artists in Sierra Madre.

BANKS WILLIAM SHARON
DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Banks William Sharon, who has lived in this city since 1916, died at his residence on East Central Avenue last Saturday.

He was in his eighty-fourth year and, while he had not been in robust health for some time, was not seriously ill until two weeks before his death. His daughter-in-law, Mrs. S. C. Sharon, was with him during his last illness.

He left two children, Mrs. Elizabeth Bell, who resides in Oklahoma, and a son, Samuel Clifford Sharon of Gadsden, Arizona, who came on to the funeral.

Mr. Sharon was a Civil War veteran and always took a very lively interest in politics. He was an ardent prohibitionist and was an active member of Bethany Church. The Rev. Dr. Rawlins, conducted the funeral services on Monday and paid tribute to the deeply religious nature and genial and kindly disposition of the deceased.

Mr. Sharon had won a warm place in the hearts of his neighbors and intimates and will be greatly missed by them.

An All-Star Cast, With NAOMI CHILDERS IN "COURAGE"
To the heart of this little mother—"stone walls do not a prison make, nor iron bars a cage."

Until—the passing years bring wealth to the woman whose husband is serving a life sentence—and there come other men with offers of love, others to praise her beauty, others to worship her. Can you wonder, then, that she wonders, "Is Waiting Worth While?"
ALSO A GOOD COMEDY, "REARIN' TO GO"

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, DECEMBER 19-20—

WILLIAM S. HART IN "THREE WORD BRAND"
It's a Paramount
A RAID! And their father went down fighting, two lads fled for their lives. One to become Governor; one a rough, silent plainsman. Unknown to each other until—?

The rest is love and struggle and thrill. With William S. Hart in both big smashing roles.
Also a Beautiful Scenic of "The Land of Lakes and Forests"

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, DECEMBER 21-22—

"ONE ARABIAN NIGHT" with Pola Negri
Supported by a Great Cast—Thousands of People—A Wonder-City Regreated. The Master-Work of Lubitsch

ACTION! THRILLS! DRAMA! LOVE! IRRESISTIBLE!
The tale of the one night in the life of the beautiful dancer—the wild desert dancer—scoffer of all men's love—yet slave at last to her own.

"ALSO A SCENIC OF "THE GREAT OUT OF DOORS."

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 23—

WANDA HAWLEY IN "THE OUTSIDE WOMAN"

"But I Simply Must Go!"
Dorothy, bride of a month, couldn't see why hubby had to tear himself away and go to work. Probably he wouldn't have gone if he had foreseen all the excitement his gentle little bride was going to stir up in that apartment during his absence.

AND THE FIFTH CHAPTER OF "MIRACLES OF THE JUNGLE"

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 24—

Thomas H. Ince Presents and All-Star Cast in
"THE BRONZE BELL"
India! Tiger-land of the east. Dozing—ever watching—untameable!

America! And a dare-devil Yank who looked like a murdered Indian Prince.
Mutiny! And the young American fighting for his love in the Temple of the Bronze Bell!

ALSO A HALL ROOM COMEDY, "PUT AND TAKE."

What would we grown-ups give for the thrills which the kiddies are getting out of those Christmas trees which glitter so beautifully in a couple of the store windows? It certainly is hard luck to be growed up at Christmas Time!

We may have our sorrows and tribulations in Sierra Madre but, by heck, we don't have to wrestle with one-man cars. There is always something to be thankful for.

Great atmosphere we have in this town—even bandstands become animated and jazz around.

Enjoyed Good Music At Church Bazaar

Reports from the bazaar held recently by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church indicate net proceeds of about $425, which is cause for great elation on the part of the many workers who participated. The decorations of the club house showed the work of a master hand. The recital in the evening was most enjoyable and a thorough artistic success. In her varied folk songs, Mrs. Grace Wood Jess portrayed vividly the characters of widely different lands and periods. The work of Oscar Rasbach at the piano gave grounds of a feeling of real community pride over having such an artist as a resident here. It is especially worth noting that one of the most popular numbers was one of his own compositions which he played as a final encore.

Special Christmas Notice YOUR CHRISMTAS WINES

AMRITAM

The NON-ALCHOLIC WINE OF THE KINGDOM, should be used in every Christian home as the FESTIVE WINE. Use AMRITAM for the Christmas Pudding. Use AMRITAM instead of spirituous liquor or wine for your mince meat. Use AMRITAM for pudding sauce. Use AMRITAM for hard sauce. Use AMRITAM for Christmas cake. AMRITAM for the table may be served with each course. Serve in small wine glass. Also as cordial after dinner. AMRITAM punch. Make as other punch. Use AMRITAM instead of alcoholic wine.
